

XM radio offers listeners an opportunity to enjoy the airwaves without commercials and should be able to (and has a duty to) present information (traffic reports, weather reports, etc,) that is a public service. The ether is owned by the public and should be beholden to no one except the public.